

Chinese Government Scholarship Bilateral Program(Type A) ---Pre-Admission Letter for CSC Scholarship

【Program Description】

The Chinese Government Scholarship – Bilateral Program is established in accordance with cooperation and exchange agreements or mutual understandings signed between the Government of the People’s Republic of China and relevant governments or institutions. Under this program, scholarships are available for undergraduate students, master’s degree students, doctoral degree students, general scholars, and senior scholars.

Applicants are required to submit their applications through the designated dispatching authorities in their home countries (generally the Education or Cultural Sections of the Chinese Embassies or Consulates).

Applicants who obtain a Pre-admission Notice from Communication University of China (CUC) must submit this notice together with other required documents when applying for the Chinese Government Scholarship under the Bilateral Program.

Please note that the Pre-admission Notice does not constitute a final admission letter. It is issued solely to assist applicants in completing scholarship application procedures in their home countries.

【Application Period】

The application period generally runs from December 1st to March 30th of the following year. Applicants are advised to confirm the specific application timeline with the relevant scholarship dispatching authorities in their home countries.

【Application Procedure】

1. Applicants should submit their application materials via email to 2961@cuc.edu.cn, with the email subject line formatted as follows:
Pre-admission (Type A) Application + Applicant's Passport Name. In the email body, please clearly indicate the full name of the intended degree program and major (in either Chinese or English).
2. Upon receipt of complete and qualified application materials, the university will issue the Pre-admission Notice as soon as possible (note: January 19th to February 24th, 2026, is the winter vacation period of Communication University of China) and send it to the applicant via email.

【Required Application Materials】

1. A scanned copy of the passport information page. The passport must be valid beyond November 2026.
2. The highest academic degree certificate in Chinese or English (original or notarized copy).
 - Prospective graduates may submit a certificate of expected graduation.
 - If the original document is not in Chinese or English, a notarized Chinese or English translation must be provided.
3. A Study Plan or Research Proposal of no less than 800 words, written in the language of instruction, clearly specifying the full name of the degree and major applied for.
4. Applicants for bachelor's degree programs must submit:
 - A scanned copy of the HSK Level 4 certificate (minimum score of 60 in each section), and
 - A scanned copy of the HSKK Intermediate certificate (minimum score of 60).(Both certificates must be valid within two years.)
5. Applicants for Chinese-taught master's or doctoral programs must submit:
 - A scanned copy of the HSK Level 5 certificate with a total score of 180 or above (minimum score of 60 in each section), and

- A scanned copy of the HSKK Advanced certificate (minimum score of 60).

(Both certificates must be valid within two years.)

- Applicants whose highest academic degree was taught in Chinese may be exempt from submitting HSK and HSKK certificates, provided that an official certificate of the language of instruction issued by the awarding institution is submitted.

6. Applicants for English-taught master's or doctoral programs:

- Native English speakers are exempt from submitting English proficiency test results.
- Non-native English speakers must provide valid proof of English proficiency, such as:

- IELTS score of 6.5 or above, or
- TOEFL IBT score of 85 or above, or
- TOEIC score of 750 or above, or
- Other equivalent English proficiency certificates.

- Non-native English speakers whose highest academic degree was taught in English are exempt from submitting IELTS/TOEFL results but must provide an official certificate of the language of instruction issued by the awarding institution.

7. Academic transcripts, including all courses completed during undergraduate, master's (if applicable), and doctoral (if applicable) studies up to the most recent semester, stamped with the official seal of the issuing institution.

- If the original transcript is not in Chinese or English, a notarized Chinese or English translation must be provided.
